In one of the small lakes on East Chillicothe avenue, a sign has been up for several days warning sportsmen that "No Fishing or Baiting is Allowed Here." This, however, need not discourage the sports, for there are several other lakes where fishing is permitted, provided no seines are used.

Rev. T. W. Campbell is winning golden opinions and making hosts of friends in his new church at Bellefontaine. No one who knew Rev. Campbell had any doubt that this would be the case. There have been few clergymen in Kenton who left more genuine friends behind than he.—Kenton Press.

Capt. Lucius Bennett, Lieut. Will Green and Will Wallace, of Company F, came home Saturday, on leaves of absence and furlough. The two officers have been sick, but Will Wallace has not been on the sick list since he left home, and looks better than when he left Bellefontaine for the front.

The Democrats in our county worked the political field in favor of a Democratic Commissioner, a year ago, saying the minority ought to have a representative on the Board. Now they have changed their tune and say the majority ought to have one representative on the Board and the minority ought to have two. This would be minority representation with a vengeance.

Dark gray 3 year old horse, weight about 1300. Strayed from the pasture on the night of the 15th. Any one informing me as to his whereabouts will receive reward. H. N. Kiser, West Liberty, Ohio.

First Freeze.

This season, we have had very light frosts in July and September, but nothing severe enough to kill even the tenderest vines. Saturday morning, October 15th, we had a white frost, and thin fingers of ice were formed, but vegetation was nipped but little. The "killing frost" is yet a thing of the future.

Low Rates West.

On account of the Trans-Mississippi and International Exposition at Omaha, Neb., the D. L. & N. Railroad will sell excursion tickets from Bellefontaine at about half fare, on October 11, 18 and 25, good returning until Nov. 3rd. Tickets will be sold to Kansas City as well as Omaha.

The Dying Wolf.

A famished Wolf gathered her whelps about her, and bade them listen to her dying words. "My children," said she, "waste no time prowling about the doors of those who insure. They are, to use the language of the times, too rich for our blood."

See GEO. H. ALLEN before you insure.

Peculiar Experiences.

While hunting at the reservoir a short time ago, and in crossing Lake Ridge I heard a great noise ahead of me in the brush and weeds. I drove up to it and found it to be a large bass trying to cross over the island to Indian Lake. I picked it up, tied it in my buggy, and had good success killing rabbits all day.

In the evening I turned it loose in the lake, and bade it good bye, after which it winked the other eye, and said that rabbit story of Harry Swanee's was just like him.

J. E. HEFFELINGER.

The Peace Commission.

The meetings of the Peace Commission at Paris have been characterized by warm debates. The Spanish members have sought persistently to saddle the debt of Cuba on the United States. Our Commissioners have firmly repudiated the idea; have denied that the United States intended to assume sovereignty over the island, and would hold possession only till the Cubans could set up a stable government. Our Commissioners have notified the Spanish Commission that our Government demanded the surrender of the Philippine islands.

These records indicate that the year 1898 will show the largest export trade of any year in our history.

Prof. Boone, the hypnotist, was robbed last week at the Richmond fair, of a gold watch and over $200 in money. With all his mind reading, he couldn't locate the thief. John Sullivan says he didn't ride in that carriage to give Boone character, but to watch Orin Hatch.

Conrad Fitchey was struck across the abdomen at the Big Four shops yesterday afternoon, by a piece of iron eight inches long and two inches square, and he was a very sick man for a while. But it is not thought his injuries are serious.

The Republican ticket in Logan county, was nominated at the Republican Primary Election, where every Republican in the county had a right to vote. It was fairly nominated, it is made up of good men, and every one of them should have the vote of every Republican in the county.

Mr. Elijah Denny's horse ran off Sunday afternoon, and badly damaged a nice piano box organ. It ran down Madison street, and not being able to make a square turn at Chillicothe street it ran across S. R. Thompson's lot, and the front wheel of the buggy struck the large pine tree on the east end of the lot and stopped the buggy's career. The horse broke loose, but was captured.

Speaking of Rev. C. G. Martin, who preached at the First Presbyterian church, Sunday, the Daily Examiner says:

"Rev. Martin was professor of a college in Constantinople several years ago and has traveled extensively in the Eastern countries. He is certainly a man of deep religious convictions, a polished and a convincing speaker, a thinker and a reader. His presence is pleasing and his voice powerful."

With which we coincide fully.

Our people all well remember Orin Knight, who for four years was employed at McLaughlin grocery. For some time past he has been a traveling salesman for Babcock & Hard, wholesale grocers, of Cleveland. He makes fine commercial man and his services are greatly appreciated by the firm. Last week he had the honor of being invited to take a trip with the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce. Ora was the only traveling salesman of the firm that was so honored.

There were about fifty in the party and the trip was made on a special train. At many of the towns bands were at the depots to meet the party and they were shown over the towns and cities visited in great style. The meals were taken on the train and were fit for gods. The excursionists had everything that heart could wish for and a royal time was the verdict of all. The trip did not cost young Knight one cent. He was a guest of honor.—Daily Examiner.

BARN BURNED.

Heavy Loss to the Owner.

The large frame barn of George Dowell, just east of West Mansfield, was discovered to be on fire about two o'clock, Monday morning. The barn with all its contents was burned, embracing three horses, all farm machinery, his entire crop of wheat, oats, wagon, carriage buggies, etc. The loss was about $3,000—insurance $1,700. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

Circuit Court Decisions.

Kaylor vs. Watson, decision of Common Pleas sustained.

John Blaney vs. State. Common Pleas sustained, and Blaney stays in the pen.

John Rennie, Dennis Donney et al vs. County Commissioners and Auditor. Finding for plaintiffs except Rennie, Wilson, Miller, Reed, Hammond and House. These plaintiffs to pay one-third the costs and Commissioners and Auditor two-thirds.

Edward Higgins vs. Co. Commissioners. Verdict of Common Pleas affirmed, that Higgins must return as illegally drawn, fees for expenses of board and horse feed while acting as Commissioner.

Kirkpatrick vs. Kirkpatrick; Common Pleas reversed.

Commissioners vs. W. F. Adams, finding for defendant and petition dismissed.

Big Four vs. Co. Commissioners. Finding for defendants; injunction dissolved.

Notice.

The Republican voters of Richmond township, Logan county, Ohio, will meet at the Mayor's Office, Saturday, October 22d, 1898, to nominate a Justice of the Peace for Richmond township.

Polls will be open from 2 until 5 o'clock p. m., standard time.

E. F. ELIAS, Committee-man.

Storm in the West.

The cold raw air that is blowing this morning is from a storm that has prevailed for a day or two in the West and Southwest. In Kansas and Missouri and in the southwest, the rain turned to snow, and a dispatch from Lawrence, Kansas, says it is the severest storm they ever had so early in the season.

At Chicago, the decorations for the Peace Jubilee were all blown into the streets.

We will probably have a sharp freeze and heavy frost tomorrow morning.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our thanks to the public for the sympathy rendered us during the last illness of our father, which will always be greatly remembered. To the members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and Rebecca, true to their vows, we desire to express our sincere thanks for their solicitude and attention while he was sick and at the burial service. May such kind administrations rendered to the sick and to our dead beget in all a more kindly feeling to the living as well as to the dead.

ELIZABETH, FRED AND C. L. HATCHER.

Lutheran Church.

At the Lutheran church last Sunday, there was an unusually large congregation, and it was noticeable that nearly every one present partook of the sacrament.

As had been announced, Rev. Adams' topic was "The Real Personal Presence of Christ in the Eucharist." Some were curious to know how he would dispose of this. His text was Matthew 26: 26, 27 and 28.

He taught that the bread and wine were emblems, and remained bread and wine, that Christ was not only present in a spiritual sense, but to the true Christian He was personally present in the body in which He ascended up into Heaven, which body became, purified, spiritual, and omnipresent, and therefore could be anywhere and everywhere personally present at the same time.

J. Crawford Smith, son of Benjamin and Cynthia Garwood Smith, was born at Zanesfield, Ohio, April 4, 1898, died at his home in Bellefontaine, Ohio, Oct. 8, 1898, aged 62 years, 6 months, and 4 days. Deceased was twice married, April 30th, 1874 to Miss Margaret Armstrong, who died October 8, 1888. November 5, 1890, he was united in marriage to Miss Emma Altman, who, with their little son Altman, aged six years, survives him. A number of years ago Mr. Smith united with the Presbyterian church, at Zanesfield, Ohio, and was soon after made an Elder of that church, which office he filled as long as he was able to attend to the duties connected therewith. On the 22nd of May he was stricken with paralysis, which affected his speech and his lower limbs, and for the past 8 months he was scarcely able to leave his home, but he bore his affliction with Christian patience, and often expressed a willingness to go when the summons for his departure came. "Bye, bye, all ready."

DEATH OF ANN ELIZA ROBB.

Another Pioneer Citizen Passes Away.

Mrs. Ann Eliza Robb died at her home in Zanesfield, Saturday night, at 12:00 o'clock, after some three weeks' illness. Her death resulted from abscesses on the neck, the result of erysipelas.

The funeral will occur this afternoon. The services will be conducted at the house, by Dr. Kalb, at 3:00 o'clock, sun time.

Mrs. Robb was the youngest but one of the children of Jesse and Avis Stanton Thomas. Her brothers, Jonathan and David, and sister, Mrs. Abigail Thomas, died in this county, and lie buried in the graveyard of the little Hickite church, a mile east of Zanesfield. Her brothers, Nathan and Joseph, who died in Michigan, also lived at one time in this county. Their brother, Jesse, died in Wisconsin. Mrs. Robb was the last of her family of nine brothers and sisters.

They were of the denomination of Friends, and the simplicity of life, honesty, firmness in principle, and love of justice characteristic of the Friends, was theirs in a marked degree.

Ann Eliza Thomas was born at Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, February 2, 1817. She was married at Mt. Pleasant, October 18, 1839, to Joseph Robb. They came at once to Logan county, and at first resided in Bellefontaine. But they soon removed to Zanesfield, where Mr. Robb was long the principal of the schools, and where they both spent the remainder of their days.

To their four children were born—two sons and two daughters. A son, and a daughter died in childhood. One, Miss Ada, a most amiable young lady, died at the age of 21 years, Sept. 14, 1865, and her father died the day she was buried. One son, Thos. N. Robb, remains to mourn the loss of a most loving and devoted mother, who to him was more than all the world beside.

Mrs. Robb was a woman of most decided convictions, and was as outspoken against wrong as she was fearless, but she had one of the tenderest of hearts, and the most loving of natures. As she said, on her deathbed she loved her near friends dearly, but she "loved every one."

Her life was secluded and quiet—adorned by the great loss of husband and children—but she kept constantly in touch and sympathy with the world about her, and was thoroughly conversant with its affairs. No one had a kinder heart, and no one felt more deeply for those who were oppressed and wronged.

In a good old age, she has been gathered to her family, and she has entered into her rest.

Many dear friends mourn her loss.

The Graphophone is to the ear, what the photographic camera is to the eye, and more, for the Graphophone catches instantly and preserves every tint and shade of sound. A most interesting use of a Graphophone is to make records of your friends' voices to be preserved for future use. You can catch the story of your jolly friend just as he told it, or the favorite song of some loved one just as she sang it, and have it reproduced perfectly at any time and as often as you please. Besides the Graphophone affords wonderful entertainment in the way of reproducing the music of bands, orchestras, or vocal or instrumental soloists. No investment will return so much in pleasure as the purchase of a Graphophone. It is the perfect talking machine.
